

Fidelity Managed Portfolios

Voiceover: Well, no doubt you've noticed that the world of investing has never been more complicated.

With the rate of inflation, geopolitics and widespread volatility, understanding how best to invest your money can be a daunting task – even a full-time job.

That is where Fidelity Managed Portfolios have earned their stripes.

You see, Fidelity Managed Portfolios are a suite of actively managed investment solutions designed to address the needs of investors while managing risk through different market cycles.

Whether it's mainly fixed income and some equity exposure for investors with a more conservative approach...

...or a balance between fixed income and equity.

Or perhaps you're looking for greater total return potential...

...there's also a portfolio that's focused solely on fully diversified equities.

And for those closing in on retirement Fidelity's Managed Risk Portfolios can help limit exposure to market declines while offering the potential for capital growth.

Fidelity leans on its deep global research network and the investment acumen of our asset allocation team to do all the heavy lifting.

Through ongoing analysis and rebalancing, they can best position these portfolios to aim to mitigate risk in today's changing investment landscape.

What does that mean for you? Well, it means you get a one-stop, diversified, actively managed suite of investment portfolios that you can choose from that are built for success over the long haul.

In other words...you've got yourself an investment solution designed for the dynamic markets of today and focused on tailoring risk to meet your investment goals.
